Descripter County, Marylant, June 29, 1771.
To be leased, the Houses and Lots belonging to the Subfericer, in the Town of Cambridge, viz.

HE Dweiling-House where he at present lives, with all the Improvements belonging to the faid Lot; as also, about Fifteen Acres of good Pafture Ground on the opposite Side of the Street, on witich is a Stable, Chaise-House, and a large Granary convenient to the Water. Likewise a Lot and a Half, with a large Dwelling, and other Out-Houses near the Court-House, which from it's Situation is one of the most convenient Places in the said Town for a Tavern, or other publick Bufiness, with the Advantage of about Ten Acres of very good Grass Land for Pasturage, and the Privilege of getting Fire-Wood for the Use of each of the abovementioned Dwelling-Houses, from Land contiguous to the faid Town.

To be let or leafed likewise, for a Term of Years, a Farm, with the Slaves and Stock on it, about Two Miles from the aforesaid Town, on which is a good convenient Dwelling-House and Kitchen, with other requisite Out-Houses, and from it's centrical Situation as to the County, and lying partly between Two much frequented Roads; it is very fit for a Person in any publick Way. The Pasturage remarkably fine, and a good deal of Branch, that may with little Expence be finished into good Meadow.

There are Two other Plantations with Slaves, Stock, and the necessary Utensils for cultivating of the Land, to be leased; the furthest of them not exceeding Four Miles from Cambridge, the Soil very good, and in good Repair.
